

probably than normal, but nonetheless that is good. I just want to say in response to those who are concerned about professors salaries, many people outside the judicial system can, of course, earn money in addition to that which they draw from their official salary. Many of our professors do that, and they deserve it and they earn it, and I'm glad for them. Members of the judiciary cannot do that, they are limited, they are limited to those salaries which we pay them. We, I think, recognize their quality, their dedication, and I think the fact that they have earned this kind of compensation. I want to say just once more this 4, 5, 10 percent, who knows what, of some of those high level salaries that we are trying now, under 773 and 775, to make tax adjustments for the benefit of those individuals, I would hope that you would advance this bill.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Thank you. The question is, shall 564 be advanced to E & R Engrossing? All in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Have you all voted? Please record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 28 ayes, 9 nays, Mr. President, on the advancement of 564.

SPEAKER BARRETT: LB 564 is advanced. I'd like to address the A bill, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, 564A, I have E & R amendments pending, first of all.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Senator Moore.

SENATOR MOORE: Mr. Speaker, I move we adopt the E & R amendments to LB 564A.

SPEAKER BARRETT: You've heard the motion to adopt the E & R amendments. Those in favor say aye. Opposed no. Carried, they are adopted.

CLERK: I have nothing further on the bill, Mr. President.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Senator Moore.

SENATOR MOORE: I move LB 564A be advanced.

SPEAKER BARRETT: You've heard the motion to advance 564A. Those in favor say aye. Opposed no. Carried, the bill is advanced. Anything for the record, Mr. Clerk?
